

Each participant may perform the action of placing their piece of Lokta paper against the surface of the ashen grey and cloudy water, downstream from Pashupatinath Temple. Once the paper has dried, each participant may send their contribution to the UK using their closest postal service.